Tomorrow morning, the third day of Our Great Annual Profit-Sharing Sale will commence with as much bustle, with as much activity and energy and with as many genuine, extraordinary and unexcelled values as the first day of this pre-eminent event. There are thousands of dollars' worth of splendid quality, reliable merchandise here. The wonderful values which have brought people to The Palais Royal from Baltimore, Richmond, and other nearby cities, as well as thousands of our regular patrons from Washington will exert their magnetism with an even greater effectiveness tomorrow. Hundreds of new items have been added in every department—values not put forward heretofore.

Remember, too, that "Profit-Sharing" means that prices for merchandise in this sale are at a minimum. Our salespeople also share in the profits as a reward for diligent, courteous, and efficient service throughout the year.
